

Without prejudice.

Hi Kerry,

My name is Kelsey Sigurdur ("sleK") and I am a moderator at <http://www.retail-worker.com>.

I am in receipt of your letter dated July 27, 2006, regarding the alleged improper disclosure of Target's 2006 AP Directives on the retail-worker.com web site.

This e-mail is intended to notify you of the fact that I have voluntarily removed the 2006 Asset Protection Directives from the retail-worker.com web site.

With regard to your request for the provision of contact information for the individual responsible for posting Target's 2006 AP Directives on the retail-worker.com web site, I regret to inform you that I am not at liberty to disclose or provide contact information or any other type of personal or personally identifiable information pertaining to any retail-worker.com web site user in the absence of a Court Order.

Sincerely,
